THURSDAY, DECEMBER 23. 1742.

Riga, Dec. 10.

We have made grand Rejoicings here on the declaring the Duke of Holstein Successor to the Imperial Diadem. How sincere these Rejoicings may be elsewhere, is not for us to determine; but certain it is, that here the People are exceedingly well pleased with the News. The setting at Liberty and Princess of Brunswick does not the nearer for this Step, and on the other Court has sent fresh Orders for their being with all imaginable Lenity and Respect. We give that the Bishop of Lubek will be elected with Dyet in the room of his Nephew, and should be found to render this agreeable even to the Swedish Court. The Bulk of the Swedes would be certainly very well pleased to see of the Royal Family on the Throne of Russia on their own. At least, this is what we hear some of their Officers, who are Prisoners in their Parole.

Dec. 7. We are in some Measure freed from the Spaniards on our Frontiers, and we begin to see more and more sensible of the Effects of his Majesty's Protection. The Nicety affected in the Affair of the Neutrality arises from Weakness of our Force, and the unlucky Circumstances of Italy. We know, that in case of an Invasion should be able to make no better than a taint and therefore it is no wonder, that, for the sake we have Recourse to Pacific Measures. It is true, on the one side, that France should encourage this Duchy, since that would immediately her Title to Lorraine; and, on the other Spaniards, if they were here, would be in the danger of losing the Fruit of their Conquest, Country would be soon eaten up, and they Fleet to command the Coast. On the whole, we are pretty secure for this Winter, and great Reason to believe, that by the Spring all will be greatly changed in Italy; since it is certain the People of Naples are so discontented, that they cannot safely trust an Army, even when he is; that neither he nor the Spaniards are well with Artillery, and that as to Money he can get much more at home, or expect any from where the Distress of the Inhabitants is so great of the usual Returns from the West-Indies, Court finds it impossible to remit a Quarter's their Troops in a whole Year.

Dec. 15. Since the Arrival of Veldt-Marshal two great Councils have been held here, perfectly satisfied, that notwithstanding the Junction of the French and Imperialists, they are so far from themselves in a Condition to penetrate into Austria the utmost of their Views will be, to make Winter-Quarters in Bavaria as secure as possible, provide themselves with Forage and Provisions near Parts of Germany, at an immense Expence. Beckendorf, it is said, press'd the French General Prince Charles to a Battle, after raising the of Braunau, but they declin'd it, as well on account of the miserable Condition their Troops are in as for a Forefight of their being utterly unequal of a Defeat. As to our Army, the Regular will be canton'd for a Month or Six Weeks, but the Hussars and Croats will continue to keep the Field. General Mentzel, who is returned to the Army, is move towards Deckendorf, where we intend to assemble a considerable Body, in order to prevent the Design which Count Saxe has formed, and for which he has made himself responsible. It is said, that Trenck has unravelled his whole Scheme, and that he Request these Troops march in order to disappoint his Design. New Days will determine the Event of this Affair, which Side will remain possess'd of that important during the Winter.

Dec. 24. It is currently reported here, that the Fleming is gone to execute a secret Commission to the Court of Great Britain, and that in the Space of a few Weeks, we shall be able to discern from the Effects the Nature of those Negotiations which the Treaty of Breslau have been carrying on in the Courts of Germany.

L O N D O N.

The late Transactions in Bavaria sufficiently declare the Sentiments of the German Princes with respect to the present War. The Bishop of Passau lent the Austrians Cannon and Horses in their Attempt on Braunau; the Archbishop of Salzbourg assisted them with Artillery and Engineers. These Affronts the French will revenge, by plundering (if they are able) the Territories of these Prelates; but then, while they fill their own Pockets they undo their Ally the Emperor, who will soon hear of these Outrages, even from his garbled Dyet at Franckfort, and be obliged in one Capacity to disclaim what he is compelled by his Auxiliaries to permit in another. It will soon therefore draw to a Crisis, and we must either gain the Emperor or he lose the Empire.

What we have from Paris in relation to M. Belleisle's quitting Prague, is no more than a Report founded apparently on a late Order of the Marshal's, to sell the heavy Baggage and provide the Men with Shoes and Stockings. Such a March, especially after such a Tartar-like Action as plundering that City, must expose him to prodigious Inconveniences, especially in so rigorous a Season, and the Peasants of Bohemia, having nothing to fear if his Army be once destroy'd, will neglect nothing that can contribute to revenging their past Wrongs and securing their future Safety. Besides, there are no Magazines; how then shall his Troops be subsisted, whether they move towards the Upper Palatinate, or endeavour to join Count Saxe?

By Letters from Lisbon we learn, that contrary to the Opinion of all his Physicians, the King recovers daily, and begins to apply himself as assiduously to Business as ever, upon which, publick Processions have been made in all the great Cities of his Dominions. The Good-Hope arrived in that Port on the 15th Nov. N. S. having been separated on the 9th in a Storm from the Victory, another India Ship homeward-bound, and the Man of War which served for their Convoy. The Good-Hope touch'd in her Return at the Bay of all Saints, where she found all the last Lisbon Fleet happily arriv'd, and was also inform'd that the Fleet from Rio de Janeiro was to sail as on the 17th of September last, in order to return into Europe.

Private Letters from Geneva inform us, that the Marquis de la Mina has positive Orders from the Spanish Court to make, cost what it will, an Irruption into Savoy; but that this, even if it could be effected, was look'd on as to very little Purpose, considering the Dispositions made by his Sardinian Majesty, for preventing a Passage that Way into Piedmont, and considering also the Inclemency of the Season, which has rendered the Roads altogether impassable; so that the Conquest of that Duchy must necessarily cost more than it can be worth. In the mean time it is evident that the Spanish Army covers the Frontiers of France, and enables his most Christian Majesty to march the Forces that must otherwise have remain'd in those Provinces into Germany, Flanders, or where else he pleases.

We learn by private Letters from Paris, that the Court is very apprehensive of the Storm gathering in Germany, which is the Reason that Assurances have been given to the Emperor, that in the Spring the Army in Bavaria shall be augmented to 100,000 Men complet. On the other hand we expect, say the same Letters, an Ambassador from a certain German Prince, who it is said will have Orders to declare, that certain Courts will think themselves obliged to act offensively, in case any more foreign Troops shall on any Pretence whatever enter the Empire; and farther, that the Matters in Difference between his Imperial Majesty and the Queen of Hungary shall be examined, and finally determined according to the Laws of Germany, in a full and free Dyet.

The John and Jane, Olive, of Pool from Newfoundland for Portugal, is taken by a Spanish Privateer, and carried into Vigo.

As is the Love and Loyalty, Monkhouse, from Whitehaven for Oporto, and carried likewise into Vigo.

The Ann Galley, Blowers, from Carolina for London, foundered 12 Leagues to the Westward of Scilly, Part of her Crew are brought to Dover, by the Duke, Capt. Gloyne.

At Scilly, the Argyle's Tender boarded the Richmond, Capt. Ellis from Jamaica, and had one Man killed outright, and two wounded, who died a few Days after.

Last Week died at his Living the Rev. Mark Ogle, Rector of Norton in Suffolk, in which 'tis thought he will be succeeded by the Rev. Andrew Pern, Fellow of St. Peter's College Cambridge, the Living being in the Gift of the Master and Fellows of the said College.

On Sunday last died Mr. James, chief Butler of Queen's College Cambridge, a Place of very considerable Profit.

On Tuesday Night last Mr. Bowker, High Constable of Westminster, and above 40 of his Petty Constables, pursuant to the Direction of the Bench of Justices at their Adjourned Sessions, went to both Play-houses, and other Parts of Covent-garden, and apprehended several reputed Thieves, Pickpockets, and other disorderly Persons, who were lurking thereabouts; and four of the most notorious of them were Yesterday Morning committed by Justice Fraser to Tothill-fields Bridewell, to hard Labour.

Yesterday Morning Mr. John Firnis, Foreman to the Fire Porters to the Royal Exchange Insurance Office, being disturb'd in Mind, stab'd himself in several Parts of his Body, and expired soon after.

The same Day died at his House in Brick-lane Spittal-fields, Mr. John Pincote, an eminent Distiller and Tobaccoist.

The same Day died of a lingering Illness, Mr. Parmenter, Beadle to the Turkey Company.

The same Day, the Right Hon. the Earl of Dunmore, who lately arriv'd from Flanders, waited on his Majesty at St. James's, and was most graciously received.

The same Day, several Commanding Officers arrived in Town from Flanders.

Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales is much recover'd of her late Indisposition with a Cold.

We hear two Schemes are laid before the Council, for raising a Million by way of a State Lottery.

THE Daily Success which has scarcely attended the Taking Dr. BATEMAN'S Pains in the Breast, Limbs, and Joints; has gained a universal a Character, that few Families care to be without them in their Houses.

Besides the Difference mentioned, there is no Medicine, since the Discovery of Pinck, that will give a Speedier Relief and Cure Rheumatic Pains, Gout, Stone, Gravel, Chalk, &c. Innumerable Instances might be given of the Happy Effects thereof, but we choose to refer to the History of Treatise of the Virtues of Dr. BATEMAN'S Drops, given Gratis, at the Warehouse above-mentioned, Shop-keepers, &c. in any City, Town, or Village, these Drops are not already Sold, may be supplied, with Allowance to sell again, by Directing or Sending to the

BENJAMIN ORR,
Wm. and Gama Dues

The Surprising Encouragement, which by Success, these most Valuable Drops have, for upwards of 20 Years, met with, not only in Great Britain and Ireland, in all Parts of the West-Indies, and other Foreign Countries, has lately induced several mean and mercenary Pretences, and by imitating our Seal, Bill of Directions, and Show-Boards, with our Method of Advertising, near as they can or dare to do, without making them thereby impose their dangerous Compositions upon the credulous Shop-keepers both in Town and Country, the True and Genuine Sort.

The PATENTES and Company therefore, in Consideration of the universal good Reception they have so long enjoyed, for the Safety of those who for the future may be depending the same, think themselves absolutely obliged to this necessary Caution;

Which they earnestly request may be observed,

THAT the Bottle they buy is sealed with the Seal of the Head, but these Words round it, BY THE PATENT, as in the Margin; and that the Names of the PATENTES, Okell, William and Clara Dues, are on the Bill of Directions given with each Bottle without which you may be affected by a notorious Counterfeit, and may be of most dangerous Consequence.

N. B. That these DROPS are also Sold Retail (in whole Sale) at the Warehouse aforesaid, at One Shilling per Bottle, containing three Doses.

An Infallible REMEDY
FOR BROKEN-WINDED HORSES,
(And particularly the present Cold so common among the Horses)

WHICH has been published and many Years before any Counterfeit in Forms appeared; and highly commended from one to another. The vast Quantities that have been sold also verify its Efficacy and Virtue, for it most cures them, after all others Means have been tried, to a Wonder, in a small time, without Costly ment; by attenuating and opening the Globules of Lungs dried up, and all the Passages obstructed by dripping thereon, occasion'd by hard Riding, Cold, &c. causes presently a free Perspiration, renewing its Force and Length again, as well as ever.

It immediately cures those Horses only a little troubled their Wind, as also all continued Coughs, Colds, &c. being excellent in preventing many other Diseases incident unto them, by maintaining, preserving, and continuing a good Breath.

And in a word, by this very Medicine alone, many Horses have been made so perfectly sound, that they have been and valued from 10 to 20 or 40 Pounds, which by Broken-winded, could not before be sold for 3 or 4 Pounds.

It is sold at Mr. Sandwell's Top-Shop at the Golden Corner of Buckler's-Bury in the Poultry, at 4 s. 6 d. the Bottle, with Directions for taking it; and no where else in England.
